COLLEGE OF VETERINARY & AGRICULTURE SCIENCE SPORTS OUTREACH ON 20TH APRIL 2013 TO MULLY CHILDREN 'S FAMILY (MCF)

The College Sportsmen and Sportswomen visited a children's home that has over 2500 children on April, 2013. The aim of visiting these disadvantaged children home was to;

- Encourage and inspire the children that it is possible to make it to the University of Nairobi.
- Have a mentorship sessions with the children and share food with them.
- Coach them skills in Sports and play various Sports and fun activities.
- Socialize with the children through the various fun games.

The students really enjoyed the activity, it was a very rewarding outreach activity and a great experience to the students.

OUTREACH INITIATIVE: FACULTY OF ARTS SPORTS DAY/TREE PLANTING DAY ON 8TH JUNE, 2013 AT MAIN CAMPUS SPORT FIELDS.

The department of Sports and Games, Faculty of Arts section, was given a responsibility of planting 500 seedlings during the 2012-2013 Performance Contract. The College of Humanities and Social Sciences through the Faculty of Arts soccer team took the initiative and requested for facilitation from College Principal to plant the trees.

A soccer tournament was organized which culminated in the planting of two (200) hundred trees around the soccer pitch and the adjacent hill, next to the forest. Every player was enthusiastic and wanted to make an impact in the environment in which they play sports. Every tree was given a name of the student and all promised to take care of the trees by way of watering them for the next four years.
